

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A-5

NEW YORK TIMES
21 August 1985

Around the World

Tunisia Said to Expel 253 Libyans for Spying

TUNIS, Aug. 20 (Reuters) — Tunisia has expelled 253 Libyans, including diplomats, for spying, the official press agency reported today.

The move appeared to be in retaliation for Libya's expulsion of more than 20,000 Tunisian workers in recent weeks.

The Tunisian press agency said the ousted Libyans, some of whom worked at the Libyan mission or the Libyan cultural center here, were trying to set up networks to incite acts of terrorism and sabotage.

The agency also said Libyan military planes violated Tunisian airspace on Sunday by flying 30 miles into the south of the country.

Accused Nazi Gives Up In Costa Rica

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Aug. 20 (AP) — An accused Nazi war criminal whose United States citizenship was revoked in 1982 has surrendered to Costa Rican authorities, the Government reported.

The Office of Intelligence and Security said the man, Bodhan Kozy, 62 years old, turned himself in Monday.

Mr. Kozy was born in the Ukraine, a part of the Soviet Union. He said he had belonged to forces in his country that were fighting the Nazis during World War II.

Costa Rican authorities have said court records charge that Mr. Kozy belonged to a Nazi police organization in the Ukraine that killed hundreds of Jews during the war.

In March 1982, a Florida court revoked his citizenship, according to the United States Justice Department's Office of Special Investigations.

Mr. Kozy's lawyer, Carlos Ibarra, said that there were no charges against his client and that he could not be deported because he was living here legally.

STAT